These are the Western Auto Supply Store and the Evans Cafe, both of which were damaged by water, smoke and the explosion.

The fire was discovered in the Terrell Grocery, one of Hamlin's largest stocks of grocery goods and meats. First comers on the street after the alarm, say the fire seemed to be on the wall about the center ket. This building was owned by Ira Clements and was formerly the Shop, and north of it was an empty building (the front part) known as the Chandler building, which widened out to about 60 feet gack towards the alley. In the rear part of the Chandler building a large room was used by the Relief or WPA Sewing Room. On the corner is the Walker building, two story and one of Hamlin's first banking structures, now occupied as the City Hall.

Above the City Hall are the offices of Dr. Joe McCrary, dentist, and the offices and living quarters of except the Walker Building, which home-office. on the second floor is greatly damaged. Dr. L. P. McCrary lost all his equipment, and house hold goods, except in one room. Dr. Joe lost heavily in his reception room but not so much in his dental room except from smoke and water.

All movable materials were taken from the City Hall room with but small damage. Damage to the room was from water. In the Sewing Room were a large amount of cloth, many finished garments, chairs and other equipment, including about twelve good sewing machines. Practically all of this was lost.

All contents of the barber shop were lost, and the same is true of the Terrell grocery stock and fix-

STAMFORD FIRE BOYS RESPONDED TO CALL

There are several good reasons why a business-block fire spreads and does so much damage. First in the older structures, some were built with only 2x6 lath and plaster partitions between them. This is no check to a hot blaze, so the fire goes from one to the other and hardly anything can stop it. The roofs are usually of a flexible composition which curves downward to shed off the water that might fall on them; the ceilings in most of the buildings are of figured sheet iron, which curl downward towards the water from the hose, and but little water gets to the fire. Another reason for the spread in the fight, is that firemen should have gas masks to work in dense smoke, and Hamlin volunteer firemen do not have that equipment and they are also short of hose lines that will stand high

As the fire spread north towards the Walker-City Hall building, it was seen that more help was needed and a call was sounded to Stamford. They arrived just in time to stop the fire after it was well underway in the Dr. L. P. McCrary offices. With Fairey and family. W. W. Jr., acgas masks and light weight hose, they entered the windows and traversed the halls and rooms and soon Tuesday to spend the remainder of had the main part of the building the week with his sister. saved. #### Went Back To Old Home And School

Sunday W. L. Cash and daughter, Mrs. Pearl Fannin and husband, went down to Dublin and then out to the old home at Cotton Wood School where Mr. Cash spent his childhood days . . . . just to see. The old house had long ago burned and a new building and new faces have come up in the past 46 years since Mr. Cash had been there. Only one person remained of the number there of long ago. Scenes of this kind touch the hearts of men. Time tells on old mother earth and the children of humanity.

Former Hamlin Man. S. S. Caldwell Died

Below is a report of the death of S. S. Caldwell of Lamesa, formerly of the Hamlin community, taken from the Dawson County Courier:

"The sudden death of S. S. Caldwell, pioneer citizen of Dawson Co., last Friday afternoon, cast a pall over the entire city.

"Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell had just returned to their home at 411 South Austin Street, from an extended vacation. He had started watering his flowers, and was stricken with a heart attack, succumbing at 1:10 P.

"Mr. Caldwell came to Dawson Co. twenty-four years ago, engaging in farming in the Woody community. He later came to Lamesa and engaged in various business enterprises. At the time of his death he was operating the Caldwell Shoe and Harness Shop.

"He was born in Mississippi on February 26, 1870, and was therefore 70 years, 4 months and 21 days of age.

"Besides his widow, he is survived by three sons and one daughter, all of whom were present at the funeral. They are: Bowd Caldwell of Stamford, Jack Caldwell of Pecos, Bogan Caldwell of Alpine and Mrs. John E. Day of Hamlin. He is also survived by three brothers, Cicero, L. D. and Ed, Lawton, Oklahoma, and one sister, Mrs. Brent E. Mitchell of Lawton.

"Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the First Methodist Church with Rev. E. D. Landreth and O. P. Clark officiating. He was a member of the Methodist Church since childhood, and also belonged to the Masonic and W. O. W. Lodges."

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Fielder of Alpine were over for the week end to visit relatives, especially their sister, Mrs. Loy Fry, who had recently returned from an operation in Dallas. Mrs. Fielder is a daughter of Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilbreath went L. B. Bruner and Mr. Fielder is nephew of J. W. Gay of Hamlin.

Lions-Rotarians Staged Fish Fry and Political Rally Tuesday Night

All seriousness and no fun makes a bad lot of boys out of Rotarians and as for the Lion fellows, they have not reached the serious age and would not know Seriousness if they met it in the road.

Combination of these two clubs makes a pretty safe situation, maybe. Anyway, these two clubs got together last Tuesday night for a Fish Fry. And what a fry!

The scene of this outdoor affair for the Rotaryanns and the Lionesses and all the fellows, was in the City Park from about sundown till 10:00 P. M.

Besides the members of the clubs there were present many visitors, some from Stamford, Dallas, Fort Worth, and California. One of the finest stacks of rich brown fried fish (sent up from Galveston) greeted the hungry throng. With the fish were onions, potato chips, bread, coffee, iced tea, water (good fine water) from Hamlin's treasured New Lake. A few cookies, and with other trimmings, it did not take long to quiet the gang, for who could eat such things and talk, or even giggle at the same time.

After the eats, W. C. Russell, the noisy Lion, called the crowd to order at an improvised "political rostrum," where a seating capacity was taxed with anxious voters. A political rally was to start. You see Hamlin is one town candidates for governor hardly ever make speeches in. But Tuesday night the program committee of the two clubs saw to it that every "pleg-gone" one of the leading candidates, including Jerry Sadler, Harry Hines, Col. Thompson, W. Lee O'Daniel and Ma (Pa) Ferguson, was present. A long spacious truck was used to form a rostrum for the "speakers." Each of the by Ted Russell and for nearly an hour the woods resounded with political thunder.

Representing the would-be governors, J. C. Turner, Jr., spoke just like Harry Hines, and did a good job of it. However the first speaker was Bowen Pope impersonating Hon. James E. Ferguson, who always speaks for his wife, the candidate. Attorney Eyssen represented Col. Thompson. Ivy Witt came forward with his snuff box and brush for Jerry Sadler and made the brush fly. The last one to appear was Mayor Joe Culbertson and his Hill-Billy Band, prancing on the stage to the tune of "Beautiful Texas."

The only thing to marr the political rally was the high heat of heckling and this started while Pa was speaking for Ma and each candidate got his share from start to finish. Each wanted to save Texas and it was hard to tell which made the most promises to the dear voters.

Owing to the rivalry, the animosity, and possible bloodshed, chairman, Ted Russell, ruled the count of the vote for each of the governors, should be made known like they do down in Mexico . . . two months (weeks) after the campaign ends. So it will be a long, long time to learn just who won. Maybe one or more revolutions will break out before the real truth is Closing the program, the Lions tried to be serious and presented a gift to the retiring president, Dr. Joe McCrary. Russell made the presentation talk and finally after exhausting all lists of suitable and practical presents, the committee decided it should be just a "night gown." And it was. All decorated with the Lions' names scribbled on it in the usual colors of crayolas. Dr. Joe accepted with "grace" saying gowns had always been pretty short up his way and a long one was certainly welcome.

Hamlin's City park is well lighted, and is a fine place for a play party. No doubt but that these two service clubs will want to attend another Fish Fry.

The Pal Young Men's Bible Class of the First Baptist Church also joined in with the Lions and Rotarians, since they had a fish fry planned for the same night at the same

1940 Band School To Begin On August 5th

Hamlin High School Band will begin its fall work August 5th, in preparation for foot ball season. Enrollment will begin August 1, at 8:00 o'clock.

Since the marching band program has not been given but little attention in the past, it will be necessary to give the band members extra time to drill and prepare the marching maneuvers which will be used for the games.

Those enrolled in the August session school will make up the marching band for foot ball season. All who desire to be in the football band MUST be in August session. The music to be used this fall has been added to the library and will be prepared during this special session.

Library and instrument cabinets are being added to the department to more adequately protect and care for the department's equipment. The walls of the band room are to be made sound-proof to improve the distinguished fellows was introduced aucustics and to avoid disturbing the class work in the building. A good library is one of the most important items in an aggressive band program so the library is being catalogued and a check system introduced to conserve and protect it.

All students enrolling in the music department will be given adaptability tests. These tests will show those who already play, the strong and weak points in their musical ability; and be of great value 'to the beginner, his parents and instructor in ascertaining what instrument he should play. The test covers an examination of teeth and lip formation, native ability of rhythm, pitch consciousness, and sense of tonality.

A rental plan will be available for those who do not have instruments of their own.

There will be no charge for instruction, during this special session nor during the school term.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hinkle and son Harry Bowen of Midland came Saturday night to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Pope. The grandson is enjoying the attention of the Herald force this week. A three year old grandson makes a grandpa editor plenty busy, especially when the young fellow begins to operate all moveable things in the print shop. But that's alright, you understand.

Mrs. Lydia Miller left Thursday for Seymour to visit her sister, Mrs. Laney and other relatives.

McCurdy's Cotton Men's Picnic Brought Greatest Crowd Yet

In this section of Texas the annual cotton men's picnic, given by Manager Roy H. McCurdy of the Western Compress & Storage Co. of this city, assisted by his son, Chunk son Eddie will likely become man- McCurdy, is becoming more and more popular.

Last Friday evening the third annual event at Hamlin's Lower Lake men, cotton seed oil mill men, traders, some merchants, a newspaper man or two, many cotton farmers. and in fact nearly 250 men in all, from a wide section of West Texas came to be guests of the McCurdys.

The McCurdy cottage is situated in a grassy nook in the Upper Park by the side of a mile stretch of clear, cooling waters . . . the very setting for a he man's social affair. It was indeed a "man's affair." Every man there was dressed in cool summer shirt sleeves and most of them without hats.

The first hour of the gathering as the shadows of night were falling, was taken up in just talk and stories and various fun-like games. But each and everyone kept his eyes cocked on the direction of where the "ham" was stacked. And it was stacked good and deep, the kind that the McCurdys bake, and the ladies of the two families come in for the credit. The eats were bountiful and varied, all the way from onions and pretzels to the dignified bread and

This Cotton Men's annual picnic s gaining reputation and guests from wider and wider areas arrive each time. All up and down the Santa Fe, swinging around by Abilene, Albany, Haskell, Knox City, Spur, to Lubbock, Post, Snyder, Sweetwater and all intervening points and maybe out still farther, were represented.

Good work Roy, dandy time Chunk; let's make it twice per year, especially when we have or expect a bumper cotton crop.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Moody will leave this Saturday for Marshalltown, Iowa, to visit with Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Harris at whose home Miss Mary Beth Moody has been visiting since her graduation at S. M. U. in June. She is a guest of Miss Helen Harris, her room mate in school. The Moody family will visit relatives in Bryan and Navasota, Texas, on the return home.

The Herald received an air-mail letter Monday from William G. Garrison, a soldier in Battery A. 18th Field Artillery at Schofield Barracks in Hawaii. This young fellow is a Hamlin boy who wants us to send him the good old Hamlin Herald. Garrison is now a Sgt. in the Army and has two years to serve- and maybe longer. The Herald anywhere $1.00 per year—and three cheers for our Army and Navy.

Bill Norris returned Tuesday to his post in the Navy Hospital Service at Mare Island, California after being at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Norris near McCaulley for twenty-six days. He has a six year enlistment and has put in only about 10 months. He is in a position to learn a lot and maybe see some of the world.

-Pity the poor candidates who face the result of their "examination" this Saturday. Candidates, please accept our apologies and sympathy. We regret so must that all those "please print" sheets have had to be disscarded, unused. Our greatest sympathy goes out to those who did not drag their feet in the campaign. Again our sympathy goes out to those who had to depend on some-, FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY: one else to lift their feet along in the race. It is hard to hitch-hike into office, yet it has been done and will likely be done this week. None of what is said above applies to our FOR COMMISSIONER Prect. No. 1 Jones County candidates. Jones Co. has a lot of fine candidates and the pity of it is that all of them cannot be elected.. Voting is a great privilege and just whom to vote for this election is a puzzle in some

-T&T-

-Candidates have had a hard time counter acting their opponents and Hitler too. Hateful Hitler has about taken all the show in America as well as all the countries in Europe this season. Soon both fights will be over unless there is a lot left for FOR DISTRICT CLERK: this nation to clean up.

-"God Bless America" is the favorite theme these days, and there is none better. "God Bless America" "The Starspangled Banner" and "America" appeal to every true American. Pity the fellow who can not fall in line and keep step. His path will become harder and harder.

-T&T-The most unusual idea growing rank in the world of thought today is that no man or company has any right to profit, grow fat, prosper and become powerful by the fruits of the labor of man. This if taken to its fullest analysis would mean that FOR CONGRESS, 17th DIST .: nobody has a right to earn anything above a mere enough to keep hunger away and to clothe the body fairly comfortable. Who of us who are not working for somebody else?

The farmer on his own farm is working for the fellow who pays him for his products, The paper man is working in his own shop but at the same time expects pay from the fellow who buys printing and reading matter. The sawmill man may own his machinery and his timber and produce lumber entirely by the labor of his own family but still he is working for somebody else who buys the lumber. This reasoning can go on and on. All of us are working for somebody else Maybe though somebody will say the man with money is growing still richer purely by the labor of a bunch of poor men. But there is no difference in pure money and pure machinery or pure earth.

In reality we are all working for somebody else after we pass the stage of food, clothing, and shelter, even if we should own our own lands that produce food fiber and shelter-

Did we have a house full last Sunday! The report showed that 322 registered in Sunday School, and several were not reported. The Vacation Bible School demonstration was enjoyed by all who saw it. It really did look good to see all the boys and girls stay for church. It doesn't hurt them! They were quiet, and I believe they should be in the services every Sunday together with their parents.

Next Sunday we want a large number of men present. This is the Sunday following our Brotherhood, and is always men's day in the church. We will do our best to bring a message of special interest of men, and we are looking for you to back us up. Nothing will help a preacher preach more than looking into the faces of real men.

We are expecting many juniors and intermediates in Training Union Sunday evening at 7:15. We have some additional workers who will begin working Sunday night, and we are looking for you to be present. The young people are really going places now.

An Open Letter

TO THE PUBLIC

DEAR FRIEND AND VOTER:

Saturday, next, I will appreciate sincerely your vote for me as Congressman from the 17th Congressional District. While being a home man does not alone entitle me to your vote, still, if I am as well qualified as any other man in the race, I believe the fact that I am a home man would entitle me to your earnest consideration.

Has any man in the race for Congress ever reduced your taxes as I did when as county judge of Jones County I led the state-wide fight that resulted in the road bond assumption law, reducing your taxes from 30 to 50 per cent? Has any man in the race for Congress ever done any more for the farmer than I did when I went to Washington at my own expense and secured an increased cotton acreage allotment for the people of West Texas? Has any man in the race for Congress ever cut your crime and the cost of crime in the 104th district 50 per cent in the six years as I have done? Has any man in the race for Congress ever taken as firm a stand as I have always taken on moral issues and traveled the district over speaking on behalf of sound morals and those public issues that make for sound

I believe my home people know that I am qualified; that I have a good education secured in that day. the hard way; that I have good common horse sense and sound business judgment; that I could make you a good congressman.

You can help me Saturday to realize my life-long ambition. Vote for me and in return I promise the same energetic and consecrated service that I have always tried to give my people.

I have lived among you for 33 years. I have presumed upon your good graces and spent most of my time for the past six weeks campaigning in the other nine counties not in my judicial district. It is next to impossible to cover 12 counties and solicit personally 60,000 voters for their support. If I have not called upon my homefolks, it is due to the fact that you know me already.

I will deeply and sincerely appreciate your help between now and Saturday and your vote on

2 TYPICAL EXPERIENCES WITH THE FREE MILE-DIAL

CAREFUL SHOPPER type tells you:

"I'm driving the car all day while my husband's at work, so I really buy most of the family gasoline out of my own budget. If I can get even 2 or 3 miles more to a gallon I want to know it. That's why I went to a Conoco station for my Mile-Dial—not just because it's free, but because it really lets you know your true mileage, exactly as a woman wants to really know about anything she pays for. I like buying tested things—the same as any up-to-date consumer-and this certified Mile-Dial is like giving us consumers our own easy way of testing Conoco Bronz-z-z for mileage.

"Anyway, it's almost like a game, dialing your correct mileage on the Mile-Dial -awfully clever. My husband says so, too. By the way, my driving is just as economical as his, the way it proves out on our Mile-Dial. Isn't that interesting? And we're keeping on dialing to make sure of our average in all different driving. Right now, after 61 gallons of Bronz-z-z in all, we're a good 200 miles ahead of what we used to expect from that much gasoline."

"DIDN'T CARE" type of driver says:

'I didn't much care what gasoline I bought as I went along. But this Mile-Dial being free, and really daring you to keep your own close tabs on Conoco Bronz-z-z gasoline, I went for it. And now I know why they've got the gimp to let the Mile-Dial tell all. For you can see by my Mile-Dial right on the dash that I've gone 633 miles on 37 gallons of Conoco Bronz-z-z.

"Now if you'll watch this smart Mile-Dial work-next to automaticyou'll see it giving the answer: ... above 17 miles to the gallon of Bronz-z-z in this big eight, around town here. But I'm leaving for about a 700-mile tripmostly open country. So don't be surprised if I even get better mileage. And don't say that's a brag, because you can't help believing the Mile-Dial. Besides settling the economy of Conoco Bronz-z-z it's sort of swell fun dialing your honest mileage. The Conoco boys must know what their gasoline's got, to give you a Mile-Dial free. I'll bet you would like one yourself and they're free as air, around a Conoco station. You ought to go quick and get yours."

TO THE CITIZENS OF JONES COUNTY:

As we draw near the First Primary date, I take this opportunity to thank each of you for the encouragement you have given me during my campaign for County Judge, and for the kind things you have said to your friends regarding my ability and qualifications as a public

I wish also to thank those friends who have volunteered their services, to station themselves at the voting boxes in the county and pass out my cards on election day. I have based | my campaign solely upon my qualifications and my record as a public official, and I believe when the citieath came while on the way to the in my case, they have given my claim consideration, therefore I have declined these kind offers.

I was born in Bell County, Texas, This woman came to Texas from 37 years ago and at the age of 3 I worked my way through college The Barrow Co. had charge of where I obtained my law degree. I

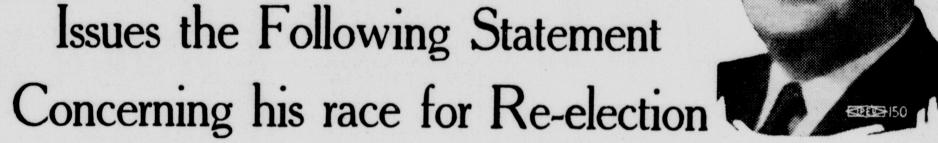

I am not unmindful of the fact and Mrs. Augustine Centreras and that the citizens of my county have, family of Eastland and others came heretofore, been kind to me by placing me in charge of the affairs of the County Attorney's office, a position whose duties go hand in hand with the duties of the County Judge. Mr. and Mrs. John Dillingham A man could not serve in the Counreturned to their California ty Attorney's office without absorbing a knowledge of the duties and responsibilities required of your County Judge, and with this idea in mind, when first I began to serve you, that I would so conduct myself and the duties of my office that my record would enable me to ask the people of this county for a higher Visit the Herald and tell us your office. The only way I have to determine whether or not my services have been acceptable to my employers and merit recognition at your hands, is my candidacy for a higher office, thus placing the matter squarely up to those for whom I work, and upon my record as your County Attorney and upon my own merits, I am asking for this pro-

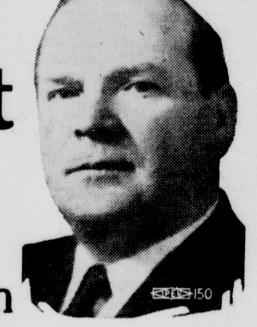

> The success or failure of any public official, must in a large degree be judged by what is done and not what is said, therefore I point with pardonable pride to my record as an official, especially the economical manner in which I have disposed of such a large number of criminal cases, and with the assurance that if elected County Judge, my undivided attention shall continue to be given to the duties and responsibilities of

Keeping the important duties of this office in mind, the fact that I have earned my own living since long before I was old enough to vote, and the fact that I am now serving in a capacity so closely associated with the office of County Judge, thus giving me a chance to thoroughly familiarize myself with the duties of the office, I believe I am capable and qualified to fill this office.

The duties of my office has made it difficult for me to make a campaign as thorough as I would like, however I have seen a majority of you, and hope each of you take this as a personal solicitation for your support Saturday, July 27th. After

CONGRESSMAN Clyde L. Garrett

Washington, D. C., July 24, 1940

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 17th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

"For weeks, my opponents have been actively campaigning the District seeking your votes. During this time, I have remained in Washington at my post of duty, trying in every possible way to render you the service you have requested. In this time of National crisis, and in view of the hundreds of telegrams and letters which I received expressing the belief that I should remain here, I have stayed on the job.

"Very unfortunately, during the past few weeks, bitter attacks have been made on me during my absence. Sly insinuations have been cast and in some instances bald misrepresentations have been made. These, my friends have answered as best they could, with the information they had. However, I believe that my record of service to you will answer any charge which has been made. I have never shirked a duty nor evaded a responsibility and had I been campaigning in your midst, with the National crisis as it is, the same people who have cast aspersions on me for remaining on the job here in Washington would have called me a deserter or shirker. You asked me to remain here and I have done so stating, in no uncertain terms, that I was leaving my political fate in the hands of my friends—the people of the 17th District of Texas.

"Saturday is election day. You will cast your vote for the man of your choice for every position in your government. It is your solemn duty as a citizen, in the clearness of your own conscience to weigh the claims of each and every candidate and to decide who can and will best serve you in the office he seeks. I am basing my claims for your vote on the honest and faithful service which I have rendered our District. I came to Washington neither seeking nor desiring publicity. I did come here, however, with an earnest desire and strong determination to honestly and faithfully represent my splendid District, comprised of the best people on earth. I have studied legislation coming before Congress, and I have voted as I thought would be for the best interest of the largest number of people in the country. I have not played politics with my ballot in Congress and at all times have tried to choose, not necessarily the popular side, but the side which was best calculated to serve your interests. If this be wrong, then I have been wrong on every vote which I have cast. Furthermore, I have carefully studied and I believe I know your needs and am deeply interested in them.

"You know my record, the things which I stood for when you sent me to Congress. I have not had to change my position. For instance, I told you in '36 that I believe this nation should have an adequate National Defense. I have voted for every measure and appropriation to strengthen our National Defense. I told the people then-and I now hold the same view-that I was opposed to any war of aggression, entanglements with foreign nations and sending the flower of our manhood to fight a European war. Our President expressed this same view to Congress and the people last week-his first utterance to this effect. I endorse it 100 per cent. These words of his, I think, should constitute our foreign policy.

"I boast of the fact that I have made many friends in Washington, both in and out of Congress. No Member of Congress has spent more time on the Floor of the House, during the time I have been in Congress, than I. I believe that I am better qualified for the task, than a man with neither experience norfriends in Washington.

"I am most earnestly soliciting your vote on Saturday, on the basis of the services which I have rendered you during the three and one-half years that I have been your Representative in Congress.

THIS WEEK'S DARDEN-O-GRAM

What is to become of the tenant farmer? There are hundreds who are walking the streets of cities and towns who in days gone by were happy and content on little farms throughout the country. If the hogging of land by the big farmers with dozens of tractors is to continue then something must be done for the little farmer. Every responsible man and woman when given a chance will gladly make their own way, and there is no energetic person that wants to be on relief if given a chance to live without it There is plenty of land in Texas for every man that would like to farm if given the chance, and when the big farmer gets the curb bits put on him and is told by our old Uncle that he can work just so much land and no more, then we shall again see thousands of little farmers making their own way and the money that they make will stay in the South where it justly belongs.

Thanks, folks for the many complimentary remarks and letters pertaining to this news column. And the Darden-O-Gram, dubbed as such by the Editor of the Herald. My sole purpose for writing on general topics of the day, is to do all the good I can for the common good of the common people, and as a common citizen, have a small part in keeping America for Americans. I may not be right on every subject that I write on, but if I didn't think I was, I wouldn't write it, so if you don't agree, merely say you | read it in the Pot Shots. Thanks a
